POLICY STATEMENT

Context

- Information privacy is a vital aspect of managing records, data, and information, which may contain personal information and sensitive health information. Effective management of personal information is one way in which an organisation can respect an individual's rights and preserve their dignity. Effective management of personal information builds consumer trust and positive reputation while supporting compliance with regulatory obligations related to information privacy.
- This policy should be read in conjunction with the following documents:
 - SCCQ Information Privacy Guideline
 - SCCQ Information Privacy Statement

Commitment

- SCCQ is committed to ensuring that personal information is managed effectively such that unauthorised access is prevented. SCCQ will identify and comply with regulatory obligations that relate to privacy.

Scope

- This policy applies to all information collected by SCCQ including information collected about consumers, their representatives, visitors, employees, contractors, visiting health practitioners and volunteers.

Quality

- This policy has been developed having regard to the Aged Care Quality Standards:
 - Standard 1(3)(f) Information Privacy
 - Standard 8(3)(c)(i) Governance Systems in relation to Information Management.

Compliance

- SCCQ recognises and will comply with its obligations under the following regulatory instruments related to information privacy:
 - Aged Care Act 1997, Quality of Care Principles 2014 (Aged Care Quality Standards)
 - Privacy Act 1998 and the Australian Privacy Principles
 - Spam Act 2003
 - Fair Work Act 2009

Accountability

- The Board, through the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), is responsible for ensuring SCCQ complies with regulatory obligations including in relation to information privacy.

Information Privacy

8. The CEO is responsible for:
 - Assigning the role of Privacy Officer.
 - Resourcing the privacy protections outlined in this Policy.

9. The Privacy Officer is responsible for:
 - Ensuring this policy and SCCQ’s Privacy Statement are accurate and compliant.
 - Privacy training.
 - Managing and registering privacy-related information requests, including redaction.
 - Managing and registering privacy complaints.
 - Managing and registering privacy breaches should they occur.
 - Monitoring and auditing compliance with this policy.

10. Each member of the Executive Leadership Team is responsible for:
 - Identifying and managing privacy risks and ensuring this policy is complied with in their areas of responsibility.
 - Communication and leadership of privacy with their Managers/direct reports.

11. The Chief Operating Officer is responsible for:
 - Ensuring this policy is implemented and operational in services.
 - Working with Managers/Supervisors in relation to privacy risks.

Quality Improvement

12. SCCQ values feedback from stakeholders and is committed to system and process improvement. Feedback and suggestions about this Policy should be directed to quality@sccqld.com.au.
